Cria Alert!

The last of our spring crias have arrived! Barn 2 is bouncing with babies—four boys and two girls! Please join us in welcoming the newest additions to the farm!

GREY GHOST

Grey Ghost arrived June 7 at 10:00 a.m., weighing 15 pounds. His dam Calypso and sire Remington blessed us with an incredibly handsome rose grey boy that enjoys romping with his half-brother Jorah Mormont who arrived in late May.

Not to be outdone, Charity gave birth to Princess Shireen on June 13 at 9:00 a.m. She was an itty bitty thing weighing in at 9.5 pounds, and we were a bit concerned at first, but our Targaryen's daughter is a plucky thing and now she spends most of her time picking on Jorah, Ghost, and Volantis.

Our final cria of the season was Syrio Forel, born on June 25 to Yasmina and Ganymede. This boy arrived in the wee hours of the morn around 5:30 a.m. and gave Laura a great surprise when she went in to do the morning check. Good things come in small packages, but as cria go, Syrio is a whopper, weighing in at 20.8 pounds at birth. He happens to be Volantis' half-brother, who is showing him the ropes, since he's got it all figured out having been born first in early May.

Our Fall babies start arriving come September, but until then we'll have our hands full with this crew. Halter training has begun, and they'll all get their first shearing in mid-July to keep them nice and cool throughout the summer. If you haven't seen our babies, you must visit soon, because babies do grow up fast! ■

Here, Piggy, Piggy, Piggy!

As if the cria weren't enough, two of our kunekune sows gave birth to a total of 12 piglets between them in June.

Mamas and piglets are a big hit as a final stop on our farm tour. You haven't lived until you've held, petted, or kissed a piglet, and watching your tour guide catch one so you can, is half the fun. Those little piggies move FAST!

Our breed sows are terrific mamas and a study in patience given the piglets' persistence in nursing. It's clear that the girls are dreaming of a nice spa day in their mud wallows once the kids are weaned. Only a couple more weeks to go, mamas! Hang in there, ladies! ■
